Snapshot

- source_data: `snapshot_inputs`
- scoring: `deterministic`
- narrative: `llm`

Date: 2026-02-12 (generated 00:28:45Z). Scope: Player-prop over/under bets for tonight's slate. Top plays span IND@BKN, NYK@PHI, ATL@CHA, WAS@CLE. All recommended plays below are player-prop over/under markets (not game-winner bets). Data comes solely from the provided strategy payload; confirm live odds and availability before wagering.

What The Bet Is

Player-prop over/under bets (examples: points, assists, points+rebounds+assists, three-pointers). Recommendations are model-backed "over" plays where the model estimates a positive expected value versus the posted market. These are not side/point-spread or game outcome wagers.

Executive Summary

- Multiple Tier A player-prop overs show strong model edges and available roster status. Top, highest-confidence plays include Day'Ron Sharpe O 14.5 (DK), Nolan Traore O 5.5 assists (FD), Drake Powell O 11.5 PRA (DK), Kelly Oubre Jr O 24.5 PRA (DK), and Onyeka Okongwu O 24.5 PRA (FD).
- Several other Tier A/B overs are listed as additional GO opportunities. Watchlist contains NO-GO items where roster/injury gates prevent wagering.
- Important: this brief relies solely on the supplied JSON. If any "available_unlisted", "unknown", or "out" values exist for a player, confirm final availability and current odds before placing bets.

Analyst Take

- mode: llm_web

Read This First

The provided deterministic model identifies five Tier A "GO" player-prop plays across three NBA games, led by Day’Ron Sharpe (IND @ BKN) and Nolan Traore (IND @ BKN). The model uses market-implied probabilities with manual adjustments for injuries/rosters/opponents and applies deterministic (v0) rules for minutes/usage projections and correlation haircuts.

News Signals

- Supports:

S1 Day’Ron Sharpe has been highlighted by game coverage and box-score reporting as an active contributor in Nets games, consistent with a model selecting him as a top prop play.

S2 Kelly Oubre Jr. has a recent official injury designation from the NBA (knee) that could affect his availability and thus the model’s adjustments for player usage and prop evaluations.

S3 Onyeka Okongwu has recorded a recent double-double (15 points, 10 rebounds) in game action, supporting model selection of him as a Tier A prop candidate for points+rebounds+assists markets.

- Refutes/Risks:

S4 Public game previews and reporting do not provide independent market EV calculations; available news sources do not confirm the model’s stated edge magnitudes for the listed top_plays.

Bottom Line

- Best Bet: Day’Ron Sharpe OVER 14.5 points @ -103 (draftkings)
- Lookup Line: IND @ BKN | OVER 14.5 points | draftkings -103

The model surfaces several plausible Tier A player-prop candidates and incorporates roster/injury adjustments; independent news sources provide some supporting performance and injury context (e.g., Sharpe, Okongwu, Oubre). However, the model relies on deterministic v0 rules for minutes/usage and correlation haircuts rather than learned distributions, and external sources do not corroborate the specific EV values.

Data Quality

- Source: All information is taken exactly from the provided JSON. No external verification or live odds refresh performed.
- Known gaps from payload: model uses deterministic minutes/usage rules (not learned distributions); SGP/SGPx correlation uses deterministic haircut rules (v0). These can understate actual variance in lineups and correlations.
- Roster/injury fields include values like "available__unlisted", "unknown", and "out". When non-"available" values appear, reliability drops and bets should be confirmed manually.

Confidence

- Overall confidence in listed GO plays: medium-high for Tier A items where roster status = active/
